

Thunder Bay Indigenous Friendship Centre

Anishinabe-Kwe: A Cultural Approach to Partner Assault Response (PAR) Program

A re-education program for women who have been violent to their partners...
The focus is to stop the violence and abuse that is destroying relationships.

The Partner Assault Response Program (PAR) is based on the Duluth Model- Domestic Assault Intervention Program.

Participants will be challenged to:

- Examine violent behaviour and the use of power and control tactics
  - Identify beliefs that support abusive behaviour
  - Discuss the effects of violence on themselves and others
  - Take responsibility for their own abusive behaviour
- Learn and practice respectful, non-controlling ways of dealing with problems

Prior to registration participants must schedule an intake interview with the Aboriginal Healing and Wellness Coordinator at the Friendship Centre

PROGRAM START DATE

MAY 30, 2018

PROGRAM END DATE

August 15, 2018

Wednesdays, 1:30-3:30 pm

12 sessions in total

Participants must attend a minimum of 10 sessions to receive a certificate

CONTACT: Peggy Adams, (807) 345-5840 ext 9057

